ACCESS TO ADEQUATE AND NUTRITIOUS
FOOD IS A BASIC HUMAN RIGHT

It is enshrined in the International Human Rights Law and supported by various National and State laws.

MYTH: Migrants defile the city.

FACTS: Migrants contribute by –
- Working in factories and commercial outlets
- Lightening up domestic chores
- Making city a better place

THUS, Migrants should not be despised

RATHER, Migrants must be protected from all kinds of exploitation and provided with -
- Subsidized Food (PDS)
- Housing & Sanitation Facilities
- Safe Drinking Water
- Public Health Facilities
- Education

MIGRANTS ARE CITIZENS LIKE US
EXTEND SUPPORT AND SOLIDARITY FOR THE FULL REALISATION OF
THE RIGHT TO FOOD IN DIGNITY